

Unlocking Transformation
daretoglow.com

Welcome to the evolution!

I want to personally welcome you and make sure you understand how important this step is: while you read these lines, you have the opportunity to become a member of Dare to Glow for your life time! You will be now a member of the 10% of the world population who actually takes action towards a better life.

‘Opportunities for improvement appear all the time. If people do not take into themselves the essence of such manifestation and use it as a step leading toward a liberated life, they will not receive the grace that emanates from the following level. As the opportunities are rejected, people distance themselves from the possibility of glimpsing wider horizons.’

Researches show that less than 10% of the world population participates in self-development courses, seminars and conferences! Instantly, this puts you above ordinary people and gives you the possibility of being a role model: you can lead and inspire others by your example!

At Dare to Glow, we devote ourselves to the evolution of humanity one woman at a time: giving you possibilities for self-knowledge and self-mastery, so you can create the life you want to live, making a meaningful difference with passion and feeling fabulous!

We designed the Glowing Pass for those committed to following their inner call for transformation and growth as a mean of creating a better world for all of us.

‘There exists no greater privilege than being off assistance to others as they walk their own path to find their own Glow. As we glow ourselves, we transform our relationships and help our planet to be a better place . We invite others to embark on their own self-discovery journey. Thank you for letting me be your Glowing Master’, Carolina
